

Mid to Senior Interior Designer- Studio North

Hawkins\Brown Job Description

---

Reporting to: Katie Tonkinson, Partner Studio North

Salary: Depending on experience

---

General:

The Interior Designer – Studio North will work closely with the interior design team in London to support on both Manchester and London based projects.

They will work with our architects and specialist staff to design, deliver and detail projects across education, residential and commercial sectors.

Skills Required-

- 5+ years proven experience of designing and delivering commercial, educational and residential projects
- BA Hons or MA interior architecture qualification (or equivalent)
- Strong client facing and presentation skills
- Strength in developing early stage interior concepts and strategies through to delivering drawing and specification packages
- Experience working collaboratively within architectural and external consultants essential
- Excellent presentation, graphic design, conceptual and visualising skills, freehand or computer aided
- Proficiency in Revit, Vectorworks, and Creative Suite
- Good space planning and spatial analysis skills
- Passion and enthusiasm for design and culture
- Excellent knowledge and understanding of materials and products
- Self-motivated, organised and pro-active

These are the key tasks as currently defined. They are not listed on priority order. From time to time the key tasks may be varied and the post holder may be expected to take on such variations within the constraints of the position and the level of responsibility implied in it.